THE ARIZONA KICKER

A Few Trenchant Bemarks Clipped by

The Detroit Free Press. IT DIDN'T FAIL.—Last Saturday the Granite Hill Savings bank, of this town, failed to open its doors, and a notice was posted up to the effect that it would open in about a week and pay at least fifty cents on the dollar. The boys got together about 10 o'clock, and Mr. Duggan, the president, was invited to explain matters. He said he hadn't time just then, but after a rope had been passed over his neck he explained that the fail-ure had been caused by overconfidence in silver mine investments. The boys doubted this, and Mr. Duggan was taken to the bank and compelled to show his books and his cash. After figuring for about two hours a committee found that there was money enough to pay every depositor $1.47 on the dollar, and it was accordingly passed out and the bank wound up in shipshape fashion. It was no failure, but simply going out of business. Mr. Duggan had calculated on a little scoop, but the boys got ahead of him. He left town on foot, carrying a spare paper collar in his hind pocket, and he will probably look for some hayseed town in which to begin life anew. We have a failure here in trade now and then, but we permit no bank to fail unless all depositors are first paid in full. FOR OTHER FIELDS.-Ex-Judge Jim

Harrison who has been a familiar figure on our streets for the last year, and who was supposed to be a retired flour merchant from Minnesota, out here to cure his asthme, is with us no more. He departed yesterday in charge of a detective, and will bring up at Joliet as the end of Judge Jim objected to the course of The Kicker. He didn't like us one bit, and when he saw us walking to the front he felt it a personal hit at himself. He threw out his hints that we were trying to run the town, but that he would make us chew eactus before he was done with us. One day two weeks ago he tried to force us into a personal quarrel, and we learned afterward that he had a Derringer in his pants pocket and snapped at us, but it failed to go off. Believing that we could run the town better than the judge we began hunting up his pedigree, and in the course of a week discovered that he was an "escaped gentleman" from state prison. He went away saying that he owed us one, but as begin to worry for some time yet. STILL HARFING.—Our jealous minded contemporary is still giving himself away in every issue of his poor old sonile sheet, and such subscribers as he has take it for the sole object of seeing what he says about us. The hair that broke the camel's back was our private graveyard. When we went to an expense of $60 to remove the seven bodies to a nice little plat of ground, and to identify each grave with a nice headboard, his gall bursted. He had no private graveyard. He went out to shoot somebody, but was knocked into the sand and his gun confiscated. He hasn't the nerve to even

Cured by Cuticura.

My disease (psoriasis) first broke out on my left cheek, spreading across my nose, and almost covering my face. It can into my eyes, and the physician was afraid I would lose my eyesight altogether. It spread all over my head and my hair all fell out until I was entirely butd-headed; it then broke out on my arms and shoulders, until my arms were just one sore. It covered my entire body, my face, head and shoulders being the worst. The white scalis fell constantly from my head, shoulders and arms; the skin would thicken and breed in scratched. After spending many hundreds of dollars, I was pronounced incurable. I beard of the CUTICUTA REMEDIES, and after using two and after I had taken four bottles, I was almost cured; and when I had used six bottles of CUTICUTA RESOLVENT and one box of CUTICUTA, and one cake of CUTICUTA.
